KEEPING IT SWEET

Lovers of real French macarons will be flocking to chef-pâtissier Pierre Hermé's first London shop, at 13 Lowndes Street, SW1, where his famous confections (pictured, £1.85 each or from £14 for a box of seven) are now on sale. www.pierreherme.com

DANISH BRAND SCANPAN HAS A NEW IQ COOKWARE RANGE. IT'S MADE FROM RECYCLED ALUMINIUM, WITH A CERAMIC TITANIUM NON-STICK SURFACE AND HANDLE-LOCKING SYSTEM OVENPROOF UP TO 260°C. PICTURED IS THE 3.2-LITRE STOCKPOT, £179, FROM HAUS. WWW.INTHEHAUS.CO.UK

OUT OF THE WOODS

Inspired by nature, Marcel Wanders has dreamed up a collection for Baccarat that includes limited-edition monumental (55cm high) vases of the Forest' cut crystal bases on solid marble bases (pictured, £2,050). Also available in other colours. www.baccarat.com

SOFT OPTION

The late Alexander McQueen's collection of four rugs for The Rug Company, which recently became available, employs the finest knotting techniques and best materials. There are also stunning cushions in the range, such as this Hummingbird design in handwoven wool tapstry (56cm by 56cm, $495). www.therugcompany.info

Designed back in 1937, the original KitchenAid Artisan Stand Mixer is still hand-assembled and features the same quality functions – but now it's available in a glossy new grape colour, from £389. www.kitchenaid.co.uk
